AgriFood Skills Australia Ltd

invites expressions of interest from experienced Directors to join its Board to fill vacancies due to the completion of the terms of two Directors, who remain eligible for re-appointment

AgriFood Skills Australia was established by the Federal Government in 2004 as one of eleven Industry Skills Councils. AgriFood's role is to work with industry, enterprises and government to advise on and address skills and workforce needs of the agrifood industry and regional Australia. It is also responsible for continuously improving and supporting the implementation of nationally endorsed training products and services.

The five main industry sectors covered by AgriFood Skills Australia are rural and related industries, food processing, meat, racing, and seafood. For more information about the company visit www.agrifoodskills.net.au

AgriFood Skills Australia is seeking to appoint Directors who meet the following selection criteria:

- Exposure at a senior level to the agrifood or related industries;
- Workforce planning and development experience
- Experience in education and skills development
- Strategic planning experience
- Good engagement and communication capability

Previous or current Board appointments will be well regarded, as will be the completion of a company director's course.

Please obtain a full information pack about the vacancies and the organisation before submitting an expression of interest, outlining your experience, skills and achievements against the above selection criteria, together with a CV.
